POWER MEETING

Results-driven buyer events for A-List distributors & suppliers

Designed for the industry's elite, Promo Marketing Power Meetings are exclusive relationship-building events. The conference format features pre-scheduled, one-on-one sessions between distributors and suppliers. Each meeting session is held in an exclusive supplier suite, securing privacy and improving business opportunities.

In 2017 we will host a series of Power Meetings & we hope you can join us at an event. Your participation is free, including your transportation & hotel stay.

“Without a doubt, The Power Meeting is by far the best format for a show in the industry for both vendor and distributor. Having attended other events similar in nature, Promo Marketing has raised the bar for others to aspire to. Extremely well done.”

WHAT THE INDUSTRY IS SAYING:

“ Just a short note to thank you for an event that was very rewarding as well as inspiring. The organization was top shelf and your staff knew their roles and performed flawlessly. I appreciated the opportunity to attend and have plans already in place to use some of the vendors that were new to me as well as adding products from existing suppliers. ”

“ Kudos to you and everyone involved in the Atlanta Power Meetings. You all were great! Super organized, friendly, professional and so helpful! I left Atlanta feeling invigorated and so excited about all the possibilities! Seriously, I met some really great suppliers, got reacquainted with others, and learned new things from suppliers I was already doing business with – who could ask for more!?” ”

Candace McCullers
Advertise America Inc
Atlanta, GA 2016

“ Plan accordingly and don't turn down the opportunity to participate in a Power Meeting - it's worth the time being away from your office and daily sales routine. The conversations lead to new projects you likely had not yet thought of and new business relationships that will be mutually beneficial for years to come. ”

Maggie Mason
City Paper Company
Atlanta, GA 2016

“ Thought I would let you know I just secured another job with another attending supplier from the Power Meeting. So that is 2 new jobs with 2 new suppliers in 2 days after the meeting. I think I like this! ”
